VOL. VII. NO. 160.

CHICAGO, FRIDAY, JULY 5, 1901.

PRICE, 5 CENTS

ROBERT WADDELL'S SHERIDAN.

The grand racing given to the patrons of Washington Park yesterday took on a quasi Derby color, and will be remembered for a long time to come as one of the best cards that has ever been given by the club. The crowd kept pouring through the gates clear up to three o'clock, at which time fully thirty thousand persons had entered the grounds.

Interest in the splendid day's sport centered in the Sheridan Stakes, a sort of Derby consolation affair. Four of the starters in the big classic responded to the bugle call in yesterday's stake. They were Robert Waddell, Six Shooter, Terminus and His Eminence. On post parade the Bradley wonder was greeted with a generous outburst of applause. He looked fit and strong and Bullman smiled confidently at the judges as he passed their stand. Off to a good start, Jimenez, who is not partial to the going, went to the front closely followed by Waddell and the rest well up. Bullman laid in behind Jimenez for the first seven-eighths where he gave the gelding his head and in a bound he took the lead. Six Shooter closed on him in the last eighth after Jimenez had shot his bolt, but Waddell was running well within himself and easily shook off the bold bid of the Respasser colt, coming away handily in the last sixteenth and winning with something to spare by a big length. Six Shooter was second about three lengths before Terminus, who was so spent in the last eighth that he swerved toward the inside rail. His Eminence made his move when entering the last quarter but gave up the contest at the last eighth post. Brutal ran an improved race and is due for an early bracket. This is the fourth consecutive victory for the Bradley gelding who has easily shown his superiority over every three-year-old of prominence in the west.

The first disqualification of the meeting occurred in the fifth race when the judges set back Martimas for interfering with Crocket. The two ran lapped the entire route but in the last eighth the former began bearing in on the latter until he had her up against the inside rail. The fouling was patent to everybody and judicial action was taken at once. Eddie Jones who ran in this race could not extend himself until in the last sixteenth where he began to close under punishment. The track had dried out too much to suit his uncertain underpinnings.

Frank Phillips' strapping colt Sam Fullen appears to be a hard horse to beat over a soft or muddy track. He had no trouble in disposing of Ohnet and Boney Boy in the second race, a dash of one mile, lying back in last position for the first half and then going to the lead in a bound. He simply galloped home unextended for the rest of the journey, being eased at the end. Ohnet made a desperate bid to overhaul him in the last eighth, but failed thoroughly. Bangle could not run a little bit in the going.

The sprint race went to "Rome" Respass' Mr. Brown, who laid in behind Yellow Tail and Money Muzz until they had run their heads off and then picked them up at the last eighth, from which point to the wire he gradually moved away, winning hands down by three lengths, while the faint-hearted Yellow Tail lasted long enough to beat Money Muzz a length for second place. The last named ran a good race when it is taken into consideration that he is not particularly fond of soft going.

The last race of the day was the most exciting of the card, Moses, Scotch Plaid and Hard Knot running in close companionship to the final eighth, where the last named gave it up. Scotch Plaid looked for a moment to have the race well in hand, but Gormley went to work on Moses with such determination, that he got him on even terms with the Burns & Waterhouse gelding about fifty yards from home. In a ding dong finish Moses got his neck over the wire first, while Scotch Plaid beat the exhausted Hard Knot five lengths for second place.

SARATOGA'S BIG STAKE.

The Saratoga Special, which will be decided next month, will be next to the Futurity the richest two-year-old event of the year. Each subscriber has named from three to four youngsters at $1,000 each, half forfeit. The nominations number sixty-eight so the stake starts off with an assured value of $34,500, including the money added by the association. With a dozen starters the gross value will be over $40,000. The entries are as follows:

Winner—B. g, by Star Ruby—Baby.

Went to post at 2:30. At post 5 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second easily. Honolulu showed the most speed, liked the heavy going and finished stoutly. Lady Sterling turned wide, but finished with a rush. Optional, at the weights, ran an extra good race and finished fast. Cast Iron got off badly and made up considerable ground. Carroll D. found the track too hard in spite of its being wet. Fontenix showed speed and hung on well. Wild Oats is hard to solve, even under track conditions supposed to favor him.

Scratched—26269 Dark Secret, 102.

Winner—Blk. c, by Charaxus—Meta Russell.

Went to post at 3:05. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won in a canter; second driving. Colonel Padden outclassed the field, was never fully extended and is in great form now. Templeton, on the rail in the worst going, ran very gamely at the end in stalling off the fast coming Oliver Mc. The latter did his best and finished strongly. Illium quit in the last furlong after a good display of speed. This colt still looks big and high in flesh.

Scratched—22190 Lone Fisherman, 120; 26382 Cervera, 119.

Winner—B. c, by Falsetto—Fright.

Went to post at 3:30. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Flywheel was perfectly handled and probably favored the going as against Goldsmith, who ran throughout in the deep going on the rail and received an over anxious and hustling ride. He was disqualified for crossing over to the middle of the track in the stretch, Turner realizing he had been taking the worst of it. None of the other horses were impeded and the decision was hardly warranted. Whitney's colt was best and can take Flywheel's measure on a fast track. Whiskey King put up a good effort at the weights and only succumbed in the last furlong. Par Excellence was eased up at the end after having appeared to be a contender when less than a quarter from the wire.

Scratched—(26383) Blue Girl, 126; 263832 Hyphen, 122; 26209 Dixieline, 114; 26383 Compute, 114. No show betting.

Winner—B. c, by Longstreet—Frstense. Went to post at 4:05. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. The Parader was handled superbly, trailed along until in the last quarter of the journey and coming through on the rail and saving much ground, raced past the tiring Commando with ridiculous ease and could have won much further off. This race settles beyond dispute that he is many pounds better in mud than on a fast track. Commando showed early in the race that he was either not himself or which was more probable, that he was unable to stride freely in the going. He tired badly at the end but like the great horse that he is he stuck to his work in a wonderful game manner. He displayed very little of his phenomenal speed and was evidently fully extended to get away from Handwork at the mile and a quarter. Handwork showed splendid speed for one and a quarter miles and was unlucky to lose third money to Mortallo, who had been carefully saved throughout. The brother to Henry of Navarre made a pretty good showing for a maiden.

Scratched—2634228 Mile, 119; 259983 Alfonso, 116; 264393 Vitellius, 113.

YEARLING SALE

AT UNION STOCK YARDS

NEXT MONDAY NIGHT, JULY 8.

Beginning promptly at 7:30 o'clock Woodard & Shanklin will sell at auction at the Union Stock Yards about 75 thoroughbred yearlings for the following gentlemen: Mr. O. H. Che-nault, Spendthrift; Mr. C. F. McMeekin, Oak-wood; Mr. T. J. Clay, Balgown; Mr. Catesby Woodford, Raceland; Col. E. F. Clay, Runny-meade; Messrs. Woodford Bros., Mr. W. P. Knight and Mr. A. W. McAlester. The offerings will include a royal lot of colts and fillies, related to many high-class stake horses. They are the get of such sires as Lissak, Ornament, Badge, Burlington, Cayuga, St. Florian, Onon-daga, imp. Esher, imp. Wagner, imp. Siddartha, Teuton, imp. Hermance, Russell, imp. Decoiver, Boldholder, imp. Wood Moss, Flying Dutch-man, Dunganven, Julien, Major Richards, Hindoo, imp. De Beauvoir, Spokane, etc.

Went to post at 2:47. At post 12 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Isia was under restraint all the way and could have won off had Slack elected to let him do so. Petra II. ran her race. She was simply not good enough to beat the winner today. Foneda appeared to be inclined to balk, but under Walker's determined coaxing and riding finish resolutely. Snark ran a good race considering the bad ride he got. Scorpio was never a contender. He got away poorly. Flying Bess turned her ankle when she was lying in a prominent position and going easy. She will be retired on account of the injury she sustained.

Scratched—26173 Gold Lack, 111.

Petra II., show, 1 to 2. Foneda, show, 7 to 5.

Winner—B. c. by Simon Magus—Preference.

Went to post at 3:20. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won ridden out; second easily. Henry Zitt was off well in motion and was never extended. He is at his best at present and can beat a better field than that which opposed him today. Dixie Queen was easily the best of the others. She is a grand looker and runs like a filly of high quality and will improve from this race. Lynden Tree had to be hard ridden in the last quarter. He stood the drive gamely and just lasted long enough to save third place. Bronze Medal, under bad handling, ran a good race. Henry Zitt, show, 2 to 5. Dixie Queen, show, out. Lynden Tree, show, 1 to 2.

Went to post at 3:43. At post 7 minutes. Start good. Won driving and all out; second the same. Orontas fought it out gamely all through the last quarter. He was shut off at the three-quarter post and had to pull up and go around his field and only got up in the last couple of strides. J. H. Sloan ran the best race he has shown in some time, was well handled and had no mischances. Edith Q. tired badly at the end. So did Moor. The latter has gone back.

Winner—B. c. by Bend 'Or—Sierra Madre.

Went to post at 4:25. At post 23 minutes. Start good. Won cleverly; second easily. Ben Mac Dhui met with interference on the turn to the stretch, but Lewis handled him splendidly after that and came with a well-timed rush in the last sixteenth. Khaki should have won had Troxler used a little better judgment. He allowed the colt to make up too much ground in the early part of the race and when it came to a drive horse and boy were equally "all out." Sadie S. showed plenty of speed in the early part of the race, but she tired badly in the last quarter and interfered with Callear, who was coming with a wet sail, forcing him to pull up. But for this interference he would have finished third. Great American can win when properly placed. Benckart was always outrun and was eased up near the finish.

Went to post at 1:30. At post 8 minutes. Start good for all but Don't You Dare and Irmingard. Won handily; second easily. Soon after the start Jack Rattin assumed an easy lead and held it without any trouble to the end. Rossfame, always up well, closed stoutly and was much the best of the others. Pyrrho tired perceptibly in the last sixteenth. I. Samuelson, badly outrun the first part of the race, was closing fast on the end and would have been third in another stride. Herodes had a turn of speed for about three furlongs and then died away.

Went to post at 2:30. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Sam Fullen laid within easy reach of Bangle and Ohnet for the first half mile, and when See called upon him he shot to the fore in a few bounds and was easily the best thereafter, winning under slight restraint. Ohnet made an ineffectual attempt to close at the last eighth under severe punishment but failed. Boney Boy was right there for a half mile and then gradually receded. He caught and easily passed the spent Bangle in the last eighth for third money. The latter, after showing only fairly well for five furlongs, propped badly and was eased at the end. His race was a bad one.

Went to post at 2:40. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second handily. Just before reaching the six furlongs pole Ed Adack, who had always laid second, easily went to the front and simply cantered the rest of the way. Alaska, in none too good a position at the first stretch turn, worked her way gradually through her field and when she got clear sailing finished with force, being much the best of the others. Oxnard was tired in the last sixteenth. He was used a good deal. If You Dare was rank for six furlongs and then stopped to almost a walk. Nansen could not run at all in the lumpy going. Latch Key showed a little early speed. Wallenstein could not run a little bit.

Went to post at 3:15. Post 6 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Bullman rated Waddell along in second position for the first seven furlongs when he gave the gelding his head and easily went to the front, choosing his own going, the race never being in question afterward. Six Shooter ran a surprisingly good race and was much the best of the others. He closed impressively but was not good enough to beat the winner and hung a sixteenth out. Terminus saved ground by taking a sharp turn at the head of the stretch and for a moment looked to have a chance but he swerved toward the inside rail and was pretty tired at the end. His Eminence made a strong bid entering the last quarter but gave it up at the last eighth and finished all out. Brutal ran an improved race. Jiminez was right there for a mile. Went to post at 3:50. At post 3 minutes. Start good for all but Tulla Fonso, who would not break and was left. Won in a hard drive; second easily. It was Martimas and Crocket neck and neck the entire route. In the last eighth Martimas tired and kept bearing in on Crocket, finally pinning her into the inside rail. The interference was patent to every eye and Martimas was disqualified. The track had dried out too much to suit Eddie Jones, who never could get going until the last eighth, from which point to the wire he closed fast under punishment. Went to post at 4:15. At post 1 minute. Start excellent. Won easily; second driving. Mr. Brown laid back of Yellow Tail and Money Muss for the first five furlongs avoiding the terrific pace. Then Knight began to drive him hard and he caught the leaders at the sixteenth post, from which point to the wire he gradually drew away, increasing his advantage at every stride. Yellow Tail, driven to the utmost, finally shook off Money Muss in the last fifty yards. The latter, who does not favor a slow track, ran a good race and will be a hard horse to beat over a fast track. Isaline was always outrun and appeared unable to do herself justice in the going.

Moses luckily got out of an early entanglement at the club house turn and was driven hard to get up with the leaders. He alternated in the lead with Scotch Plaid and Hard Knot up to the last eighth, where Hard Knot quit. It looked for a moment as if Scotch Plaid would win in the last sixteenth, but Gormley rallied Moses with determination and just landed him first under sharp punishment. Hard Knot was very tired at the end. Ben Chance could never get to going at any part of the race. Walkenshaw has trained off and ran as if stale. Eccome ran well for a half and then gave it up.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

J. D. B., Chicago: Nasturtium belongs to W. C. Whitney and J. B. Haggin in equal partnership. Similarly Blue Girl belongs to John E. Madden and W. C. Whitney in equal partnership. Flywheel is John E. Madden's sole property and Goldsmith is W. C. Whitney's alone. In the east the Jockey Club does not recognize betting and the only rules governing it are those devised by the Metropolitan Association of Bookmakers, and such coupling as is done is under those rules. Blue Girl and Flywheel are usually coupled because Madden trains them both. In the case of the wager on Nasturtium A is entitled to his money back and nothing more. There was no coupled Whitney entry, and as the horse he bet on was scratched the case is a plain one.

Star Bright is reported to have bowed a tendon and will have to be retired. With him and such other mighty ones as Ethelbert, Kinley Mack and Banastar out of the way because of accidents, it is not at all unlikely that the star of Imp will soon be in the ascendant again. The great black mare is working in good style and will probably soon be in condition to repay the rest and assiduous care Trainer Peter Wimmer has given her.

Brennan, Toronto, Ont. Anecdote started in the sixth race at Sheephead, June 22, and was last. All Green did not start in the fourth race same track and day. All Gold did and finished as Daily Racing Form's chart placed him.

Time, 13, 25, 38, 51, 1:04, 1:20.
Winner—B. f. by Chatham—Patience.
Went to post at 2:30. At post 2 minutes. Start fair. Won cleverly; second ridden out. The track suited Mirt Asher the best of the lot. She was nicely handled and nursed all the way. Miss Guido was off none too well nor was she well ridden. She was the freshest horse in the race at the end. La Mascota found the mud very trying and stopped tired to death. Brigand Queen ran a nice race from a poor beginning. Curd Gillock is not in form and runs no two races alike. Whitmore showed speed in the mud for a little way. Silver Set was anchored by the going.

Overweights—La Mascota, 2 pounds.
Mirt Asher, show, 2 to 1. Miss Guido, show, out. La Mascota, show, 3 to 5. Curd Gillock, show, out.

Winner—B. f. by Freeman—Ethel Gray.
Went to post at 3:00. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second driving. Ethylene, usually a bad breaker, got off running and never was headed. She is fond of mud. Kaffir was abominably handled by O'Neil. Off well, he was allowed to drop far out of the early running, then came strong in the stretch. Gallagher, off badly, was choked in the early part, driven around the sharp turns and allowed to swerve all over the stretch. Gallagher was the best horse in the race. The first three should run close together in the going and at the weights. Dave Sommers is of no account. Colonel Stone can do better.

Scratched—(26388) Wakita, 105.
Overweights—Gallagher, 5 pounds.
Ethylene, show, out. Kaffir, show, 1 to 2. Gallagher, show, 1 to 2. Dave Sommers, show, out.

Time, 13, 26, 39, 52, 1:05, 1:19, 1:46, 1:48.
Winner—Ch. c. by Chimney Sweep or Kingston—Princess Monmouth.
Went to post at 3:30. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Prince Stonemouth, in Tom Kiley's charge, ran an improved race. He was running fast at the end. He was cleverly ridden. John Morton was used too much at the early stage of the race. Sylvian did well in the going. Barrica had speed for six furlongs, then stopped. Kittie Clyde ran fast for a half mile. John Bull and Saline were awfully ridden. Saline suffered most.

Scratched—(26476) Hungarian, 106.
Overweights—John Morton, 4 pounds; Barrica, 2.
Prince Stonemouth, show, evens. John Morton, show, 7 to 5. Sylvian, show, 4 to 5. Saline show, out.

Winner—B. h. by Newcourt—Malada.
Went to post at 4:30. At post 4 minutes. Start fair. Won cleverly; second easily. Tom Collins, after a long rest, came out a much improved and freshened horse and ran to his best form. A. D. Gibson was off badly. It took all the run out of him to get up. Dr. Cave was third on sufferance. General Magruder was pulled up.

Scratched—26390 Ben Ledi, 98.
Tom Collins, show, 1 to 3. A. D. Gibson, show, out. Dr. Cave, show, evens.

Time, 26, 53, 1:20, 1:43, 2:08.
Winner—Ch. c. by Oddfellow—Annie Clarke.
Went to post at 5:30. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Oudenarde liked the going, led the field all the way and was never in danger. Blink was well away, but Weber let him fall back at the last three eighths, then brought him up with a rush. He could not have won, however. Nan Dora ran a good race under poor handling. Wall began like a winner but was jammed into a mud hole at the first quarter and lost ten lengths. He finished going very fast. The last two were never contenders.
Scratched—26034 Love's Labor, 104; 26391 Varro, 103; 26449 Orris, 94; (26447) Jerry Hunt, 93.
Overweights—Miss Threasa, 4 pounds.

Winner—B. f. by Sensation—Puzzle.
Went to post at 5:56. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Prima II., heavily backed and one of the best "good things" of the local season, was pointed for this race and won it without trouble. Tobe Paine ran to his mark. Hindoonet never did like deep going and it tired him quickly. The Count ran a rattling race until he got cut off at both turns. With a good rider on him he would have been closer up.
Scratched—26386 Graves, 108.
No show betting on first three.

Winner—B. h. by Free Knight—Maggie Merrill.
Went to post at 5:30. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Gilmore got Lee Bruno going so quickly that he made the start look poor. He caught the pair asleep and was gone before they awakened. Amelia Strathmore ran an even race, but never got up.
Scratched—26388 Salve, 93.

Winner—B. c. by Magnetizer—Rushlight.

Went to post at 4:45. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Magic Light was best in the soft going which prevailed, gave evidence of plenty of speed and stamina and promises to become one of the top notchers at steeplechasing. Marylander may have owed his defeat to excessive use made of him in the first mile and a half, in spite of which he kept hanging on with bulldog tenacity. Sacket was carried along too fast to suit him, as after looming up dangerously at the half he failed at the end. Passe Partout tired under his big impost because of the deep going.

Winner—B. c. by Lately—La Bruja.
Went to post at 3:12. Off at the first break to a good start. Won with the first two driving. Dr. Worth was better ridden today than usual. He took the shortest way all around. Faleta ran a much improved race, but could not withstand Dr. Worth's rush. Debenture was bumped and knocked off her stride at the eighth post. Edna Kenner was slow in the early stages of the race. Georgienna was eased up in the stretch. The boy did not look as if he was trying. Mary Greenway bolted at the start.
Scratched—26280 Electrolytic, 105.
Overweights—Edna Kenner, 1+ pounds.

Winner—Ch. f. by Escher—Kitty Greame.
Went to post at 3:40. Off at the first break to a good start. Won easily; second the same. Edna Gerry had to be hard ridden all the way. Nelse Morris is at his best right now. Baffled ran her race while Banquo II. and Birdie May did not perform as they can. The winner, entered for $400, was run up to $600 and sold to William Webb.
Edna Gerry, show, out. Nelse Morris, show, 3 to 5. Baffled, show, 6 to 5. Banquo II., show, out. Birdie May, show, 1 to 2.

Winner—Ch. c. by Fonso—Eva R.
Went to post at 4:10. At post 13 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Uledi improved surprisingly and overhauled Jim Clark on the far turn and was going easy at the head of the stretch, but had to be punished near the finish to stall off John McElroy. The latter came with a determined rush, but could not quite reach. Charley O'Brien closed a big gap in the stretch. Jim Clark showed fine speed, but quit when challenged. Pine Chip was outclassed. Strathbrock was next to the inside rail all the way and was cut off three times on the backstretch. Toluca seemingly could not raise a gallop. Strathbrock broke down.
Uledi, show, 3 to 5. John McElroy, show, 1 to 2. Charley O'Brien, show, 2 to 5. Jim Clark, show, 2 to 5.

Time, 12, 24, 48, 1:00, 1:14.
Winner—Ch. f. by St. Leonards—Ventnor.
Went to post at 4:48. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Santa Ventura is a quick breaker and showed all her speed. Teucer is a slow beginner, but finished strongly. Slasher was bumped into the fence shortly after the start and had to pull up. There was a great deal of jostling at this point. St. Sidney showed considerable early speed. Nekarnis was pocketed all the way.

Time, 12, 25, 49, 1:15, 1:41.
Winner—Ch. g. by Wadsworth—Emily S.
Went to post at 5:15. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Ignis was much the best and won without any great effort. Meggs might have won had he not been jumped on and cut off at the first turn. Fucino was slow at first, but finished strongly. Polly Bixby ran well for six furlongs. Free Admission was in company too fast for him. Caloocan ran a poor race with no apparent excuse. The winner, entered for $200, was run up $150 and bought in.
Scratched—(26468) Pantland, 108.

*Coupled in betting.
Winner—Blk. g. by Springland—Alta Blue.
Went to post at 5:40. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Land Ho was seemingly by far the best and raced in front by himself all the way. Mr. Brookwood came fast through the stretch after clearing the last jump. Governor Boyd by no means ran his race, but finished fast on the flat. Metoxen failed at the last jump and dropped out of it. The jockey on Jack Willis pulled him up at the start.
No show betting on first three.
